

Emdeon eArchive/CD Archive

Streamline your patient response time, reduce file maintenance and save space

With the costs of record keeping increasing, healthcare providers must look for cost reduction solutions within key areas of their organizations. Emdeon eArchive/CD Archive offers solutions for savings in this critical area.

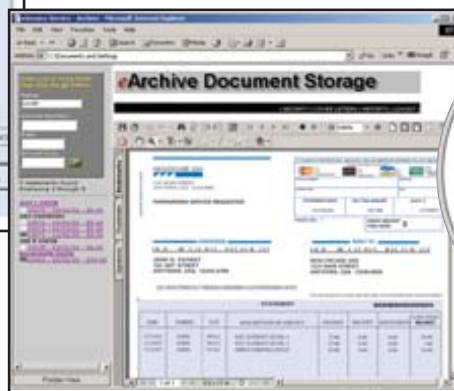

Emdeon eArchive 24/7 desktop file retrieval and viewing capabilities allow you to easily see statements and documents online that mirror those sent to your patients. Instantly retrieve patient statements from your online browser, from a CD or both. Either choice gives you the benefits of:

- Instant response to patient queries
- More efficient patient communication
- Better customer service
- Faster payments
- Reduced record storage gaining valuable floorspace
- Full HIPAA compliance

You'll resolve patient issues quickly with Emdeon eArchive's fast access to high quality, full-color screen statements and documents. Emdeon eArchive also lets you easily:

- Retrieve statements/documents for on-demand printing, faxing or emailing
- Simplify past due accounts sorting for follow-up
- Provide fast email document response to patients

Emdeon eArchive online file access service provides full text search and range capabilities for patient documents. Choose the index and sorting option that works best for you. After you forward your billing files, we'll print and mail your statements, and with Emdeon eArchive, maintain your documents for three months or up to one year for your convenience. For longer term storage needs, your data can be burned to CD.
