Outsourcing mailroom operations, scanning, imaging and data capture to Emdeon streamlines processes and allows your organization to focus on core business competencies.

Emdeon Paper-to-EDI Conversion

Streamlined operations offer payers improved efficiency and reduced expenses

Emdeon recognizes today's business need to process large claim volumes quickly and efficiently with minimal manual intervention or capital investment.

Through state-of-the-art mailroom operations and industry leading scanning and data capture technology, Emdeon Paper-to-EDI Conversion helps payers meet those challenges. Outsourcing mailroom operations, scanning, imaging and data capture to Emdeon streamlines processes and allows your organization to focus on core business competencies.

Driving business with data and information technology

As an industry leader with decades of experience, Emdeon delivers significant cost savings to payers by leveraging technology to convert claims from paper to electronic formats. Emdeon Paper-to-EDI Conversion unites mailroom functions with world-class scanning and imaging tools, drastically reducing manual intervention and human error at the earliest point of entry into your organization. Automating mail sorting and scanning processes dramatically improves accuracy and productivity, while at the same time reducing expenses. With your outsourced scanning and imaging, Emdeon is also able to design growth programs specific to your organization that identify and capitalize on EDI opportunities. As the nation's leading electronic healthcare transaction network, Emdeon's interest in eliminating paper claims altogether is aligned with our customers.
