*The implementation timeline described above is provided for sample purposes only. Emdeon cannot guarantee that implementation will be completed within a certain time period as the process is subject to many factors out of Emdeon's control, including certain technical issues and the availability of personnel that provider/customer must make available in order to ensure that implementation is completed within a reasonable time period. Implementation processes and timelines will vary and the duration of actual implementations can be less than or greater than 90 business days.
